U. S. PROBATION OFFICER ACTION SUMMARY

On September 5, 2013, the above-named offender was sentenced to 60 month probation. At sentencing, the Court ordered that she cooperate and arrange with the Internal Revenue Service to pay all past and present taxes, interest, and penalties. Since that time, the offender has complied with all conditions of supervision, completing her community service and paying her $2,000 fine.

Mazzeo's lifestyle does not appear to be commensurate with her reported income. Recently, she purchased luxury vehicles and has remodeled her million-dollar home. She reports earning $4,333.33 per month in gross income.

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has been contacted to determine if Mazzeo is current with any taxes and is cooperating with the IRS pursuant to her special conditions of supervision.

To facilitate her supervision and to confirm her compliance with all her financial conditions of supervision, it is recommended that the United States Probation Office be allowed to share financial information obtained from the offender with the IRS.
